A gift for the guest of honor created by them and their friends.

Each child at the party picks a paint color and golf ball. They dip the golf balls in paint, place them in the box with the blackened canvas and the children shake, rattle and roll the golf balls around. When finished the blackened contact paper is removed, revealing an image for the host to finish painting as they like. After drying the 16x20 canvas can hang in the child's room. This group art brings many smiles and lasting memories.
